Supply Chain Security is a growing concern in these times of targeted actions against warehouses and general terrorist threats. No logistics executive can afford to rely on ineffective safeguards today. Here's a unique opportunity to learn about the biggest mistakes companies have made when protecting their customer's goods. You'll also learn about tried and proven techniques that can dramatically reduce your risk for inventory disappearance, cargo theft, sabotage and other threats that are all too real today.

Speaker - Barry Brandman, president, Danbee Investigations

Danbee's services focus on all aspects of business crime, including:

- Fraud
- Sabotage
- Inventory Loss
- Workplace Substance Abuse
- Cybercrime
- Cargo Theft

What You'll Learn by Attending:

- The seven biggest myths about 3PL security
- Case histories - how 3PLs were victimized - what went wrong and how these losses can be avoided/prevented
- The financial benefits of successful loss prevention programs
- Why 3PLs are being exposed to costly theft related litigation
- The essential components of an effective 3PL security program
